

Your New Life as a Financial Success

Objective: To firmly establish in your mind what your future will be. Using the success strategies you will learn in these steps you can begin programming your life to insure your dreams come true.

Time Required: One hour.

Instructions: Select a time when you will not be interrupted. Choose a totally quiet spot, relax and let the ideas flow. Create your Personal Statement of Success with the realization that you have absolutely no limits – you have all the time you need, you have the talent, you have whatever money it takes, you have the ability, you have the full support of everyone who is important to you – family, friends, business associates, etc. and you are 110% confident that your desires will become reality.
